

SAMHAIN PARADE IN MANORHAMILTON CLIMATE CHANGE

Samhain Parade in Manorhamilton: Climate Change

The Samhain parade that took place in Manorhamilton on Nov 1, 2019, had a theme of Climate Change. Despite the pouring rain a great crowd turned out to watch it. It was a great community effort, as children and adults worked together over the weeks coming up to the event making costumes and all the paraphernalia for display.

Thanks to Leitrim Sculpture Centre, Glens Centre, Bee Park and the Castle & funders Leitrim Co Co & Creative Ireland

PHOTOS: JONAS DELLOW

The Salmon was made by LSC to swim in the toxic waters

The Fish and the toxic water was made by Masterson school children working with Chris Warburton

The Gaelscoil children worked with Dee Armstrong and Sonia making the creatures for the warrior woman

The Warrior woman was made by Dee Armstrong as a warrior for a greener, cleaner future for the earth

The Extinction Rebellion (XR) folk were a band of marching musicians