JOBS CRISIS HITS CO...

Is Leitrim becoming an unemployment blackspot once again and is the imminent arrival of MBNA's jobs masking the true picture of job creation in Leitrim? Since last October, the closure of a number of small companies has resulted in an accumulation of some 130 job losses in the county. The threat of closure hangs over other companies and this has now created an air of gloom in a county that had been experiencing considerable investment and job creation. Concerns have been expressed that in such a county there is now a crisis in the small industry sector in Leitrim.
